About Net Inclusion

The Net Inclusion conference has been a staple in the digital inclusion community since 2016, bringing hundreds of practitioners, advocates, academics, internet service providers, and policymakers together to share their knowledge and discuss:

- local, state, and federal policies and policy innovations impacting digital equity
- sources of financial and programmatic support of digital inclusion programs
- digital inclusion best practices from across the country

Net Inclusion 2022 was our largest conference to date.
