

RANDOLPH  COUNTY
DIGITAL ALLIANCE
EARN · LEARN · BE WELL

Vision Statement

In Randolph County, every household and business will have the opportunity to earn, learn, and be well by accessing needed digital resources.

Mission Statement

The Randolph County Digital Alliance will work with organizations to eliminate the digital divide by helping improve access, adoption, and utilization of digital resources.

Agenda

October 6, 2021 at 3:00 - 4:00 PM

Introductions

Meet Laura- Digital Ambassador

- Current survey participants
- Church bulletins/outreach/social media graphics/postcards/interest letter
 - Libraries?
 - Programs/groups to present info
- DI Plan for review - checklist and goals?

3rd Round BAND-NC Funding???

Update on County Proposal for Digital Literacy and Skill Coordinator

Alliance Participates Updates

Current List of Alliance Participants

1. Kenny Sherin, N.C. Cooperative Extension, Randolph County Center
2. Ross Holt, Asheboro/Randolph Public Library
3. Patrick O'Hara, Asheboro/Randolph YMCA

4. Shenna Creech, Randolph County School System
5. Anthony Woodyard, Asheboro City Schools
6. Lisa Bennett, Randolph County Economic Development
7. Lisa Hayworth, Randolph County Partnership for Children
8. Stephanie Gee, Randolph Communications
9. RJ Williamson, Randolph County IT Department
10. Jill Cofer, N.C. Cooperative Extension, Randolph County Center
11. Beverly Nelson, Archdale/Trinity Chamber of Commerce
12. Chip Foust, George Washington Carver Enrichment Center
13. Greg Patton, City of Randleman
14. Nancy Sharpless, Randolph County Resident
15. Hope Haywood, Randolph County Commissioner