DIGITAL EQUITY STAFF CONTACTS

John Davis

Cable Administrator, Baltimore County Office of Information Technology

Funded by government

jdavis@baltimorecountymd.gov | 410-887-2095

Cable Administrator will fulfill traditional administrative and enforcement roles related to the County’s cable franchise agreements, while also embracing key, evolving roles in related right-of-way franchise administration, digital inclusion and digital equity initiatives, in addition to supporting the County government’s innovative Fiber Infrastructure Program. This position is funded by government.

Vishnupriya Desai

Digital Inclusion Coordinator, Baltimore County Department of Aging

vdesai1@baltimorecountymd.gov | 410-887-2062

The purpose of Digital Inclusion Coordinator is to provide training, assistance and resources to improve the understanding and usage of technology to older adults. Collaborate with community partners with similar goals to reach public so that they can live more connected and establish a better quality of life. This position is funded by ARPA.

Alexandra Houff

Digital Equity and Virtual Services Manager, Baltimore County Public Library

ahouff@bcpl.net | 410-887-7594

Under the Direction of the Assistant Director, oversees the activities of the Digital Equity and Virtual Services Department. Works with branch and administrative staff in identifying and implementing system information service and digital priorities. Acts as a liaison to Baltimore County Government Office of Information Technology. Maintains and develops expertise in new technology and applications. This position is funded by public library funds.

Robert O’Connor

Chief Information Officer, Baltimore County Office of Information Technology

Funded by government

roconnor@baltimorecountymd.gov | 410-887-4176

Chief Information Officer is responsible for the strategic management and daily operations of centralized technology department servicing all County Agencies. He is also responsible for the County’s technology infrastructure, application development, service delivery, and security. This position is funded by government.

In addition to these there are other county staff members from various agencies who are also working on digital inclusion related work to help close the digital divide for Baltimore County.